Director: Herbert Jay Rosenfield, ACSW, LCSW, BCD

To our A&FCC Clients and Families, we are pleased to inform you that our Director, Herb Rosenfield, has written his first and only book and it has been released on Amazon.Com

There Is Hope! For Adult Survivors of Child Sexual Abuse is now Available on Amazon.Com!

The book was written to assist the healing for many CSA survivors around the world, to be helpful to their family members, and to be informative for other therapists. It is available in eBook, paperback, and hardcover.

Written by a caring, experienced male mental health professional, this 12-chapter non-fiction book explains how child sexual abuse occurs, who are the perpetrators, how the perpetrators access and entrap their victims, the long-term damage that results, and the potential successful interventions in the process of therapy. The valuable progress that actual adult clients have accomplished is presented through disguised case examples of courageous people who have been victims of child sexual abuse, worked hard in therapy, and grown and healed. The final chapter is “The Hopefulness Chapter”, and Rosenfield presents societal interventions to better reach and assist victims in their healing and in working together to reduces child sexual abuse in the future, so that There Is Hope!
